

Fred. Olsen Marine Services AS, a Bonheur and Ganger Rolf related company (BON/GRO at OSX) is a dynamic, international management and engineering services provider. The organization has a history of innovation and long-term value creation, with strong roots in the Norwegian maritime industry dating back to 1848.

Technical Superintendent Cruise

Main work tasks

- Overall responsibility for the daily technical operation of vessel (s)
- Responsible for development and follow up of technical budgets
- Ensure vessel (s) is fully compliant with Flag and Class requirements
- Planning, budget and carryout of vessels dry-dock
- Assist in various projects
- Other tasks as required

Qualifications

- Proven track record within the shipping industry, preferably cruise
- Conversant in HSEQ requirements
- Excellent communication skills in English
- Knowledge of AMOS-W is an advantage
- Efficient and structured self-starter
- Flexible attitude
- Chief engineer or similar

The position offers challenges and possibility for personal development in a hectic and international environment.

The person must be willing to relocate to the Oslo area.

For further information, please contact Erik Kaberg or Astrid S. Steen, tlf. 22 34 10 00. Written application with CV to be sent to stillinger@fredolsen.no, or to Personnel Department, postbox 1159 Sentrum, 0101 Oslo, before May 25th 2009.